Spring Conference Recap

Michael A. Iwanicki, Superintendent Veterans Assistance Commission - McHenry County

It was so good to be back together with so many of you in June after 18+ months apart! The Spring 2021 Conference was a success for many reasons, the biggest one being you -- we had an excellent turnout of nearly 400 County Officials close to 100 vendor representatives and guests. We wouldn't have been able to do it without our wonderful sponsors. We were joined by 48 vendors that participated as sponsors and/or exhibitors. These companies work hard to bring you tools to help you serve your counties as effectively as possible.

The conference started with a day full of relevant educational sessions. You heard from Emily Swenson Brock, director of the Government Finance Officers Association, who joined us remotely to get into the nitty gritty of what the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) could mean for your counties. ARPA provides $350 billion dollars in emergency funding for state, local, territorial, and Tribal governments to remedy the mismatch between rising costs and falling revenues. Emily's discussion focused on the guidelines and principles for determining the types of programs and services that this funding could support and answering specific questions that you had about putting these federal dollars to work in your county. ARPA will be featured again at the Fall IACO Conference in November, so plan to join us to learn more about what the future of ARPA will look like in your governments. After lunch, Stan Gibson joined us to give an inspiring talk about how to reclaim energy, purpose, and intention in your work life by managing your most important asset- YOU! Our afternoon ended with a sessions with Donna Rogers (MEd, SPHR, SHRM-SCP) about how to minimize the risk of complaints surrounding vaccine bullying and what protections are in place to support a healthy workplace culture for everyone--regardless of individual opinions on vaccines.

Message from the President-Elect

Bobbi Murray Rairden
Douglas County Treasurer

It was so fun to see faces in June! We had a fabulous turnout for spring conference. We have been busy planning for the fall conference and beyond. ARPA and all of its issues will continue to be a hot topic of conversation at all of our conferences for the next several years. Human resource issues are always relevant. Please let the IACO Board know if you have additional ideas/needs going forward for education for our members. Contact your affiliate representative on the IACO Board or the Board directly. Chances are you are not the only one with questions and/or concerns about a topic. We are truly all about educating you, our members, to keep you current and knowledgeable. We are all in this together. We are encouraging EVERY affiliate to submit a nomination for County Official of the Year 2021. You can find the application for the award in this newsletter. Read over the application, we have done a little tweaking on the requirements. We have an extraordinary number of overachievers in our group. Sing their praises! We look forward to seeing you in Normal!

2020 County Official of the Year Recipient

Holly Lemons - Montgomery County Circuit Clerk

Even though we did not have the opportunity to gather together in 2020, life did not slow down for you or your offices. In fact, in many cases, the pandemic only added to the complexity of what each of you do for your constituents, and we would have been remiss to go without honoring someone with the title of 2020 County Official of the Year! This year, that honor went to Holly Lemons, Montgomery County Circuit Clerk. We are all aware of the many unexpected pivots that had to happen in 2020 to keep our offices not only functioning, but serving the people and communities that put their trust in us by choosing us to hold office. In the midst of such a difficult year, Holly stood out as someone who was able to take the challenges she faced in stride while still maintaining the respect and admiration of her family, colleagues, and constituents.

Holly received recommendations from everyone from family members, to colleagues, to vendors and there were many themes that were repeated throughout the nominations. She is a leader in adopting cutting edge technology. One recommendation called her the "epitome of modernization" and praised her ability to make her office "as paperless as possible...to the greatest extent allowed by rule"-- a task that, as you can imagine, helped enormously in light of lock-downs and quarantines.

In addition to the work she has done with her local office, Holly has held many titles in her professional associations, including Immediate Past President of the Illinois Association of Court Clerks, Chair of the Illinois Judicial College Circuit Court Clerk's Education Committee and Co-Chair of the Legislative committee, among others. Holly has held her current office for 12 years and worked in county government for at least 15! She loves to support local businesses and spend time with her four daughters. Her friends and colleagues called her encouraging, reliable, kind, and welcoming. Holly is an excellent example, both at work and at home, of the heart of the County Official of the Year Award! If you know Holly, make sure you congratulate her on the well-deserved honor and thank her for her service!

Take some time to think of who in your office or affiliate organization, like Holly, embodies the spirit of the County Official of the Year Award because we will be looking for nominations for the 2021 award in the weeks leading up to the Fall Conference (November 17-19 in Normal, IL!)

IACO County Official of the Year Nominations

Since the 2020 Conferences were cancelled, we decided to award two County Official of the Year awards in 2021. The 2020 County Official of the Year award was presented to Holly Lemons at Spring Conference (see separate article). So, now it is time to make your nominations for the 2021 IACO County Official of the Year! As Bobbi mentioned in her message, we have an some extraordinary county officials, so we would love to have a nominee from every affiliate!

The winner will be awarded at the 2021 Fall Conference, so get started on your submissions! November 1st is the deadline for application. The application can be found on the IACO Website at www.iacoonline.org or on pages 8 & 9 of this newsletter.

IACO Scholarship Fund

It seems as if COVID-19 left nothing untouched, but after postponing our Scholarship program for 2021, we have decided to expand it moving forward!

We invite you and your affiliates to join with us to raise money for the scholarship fund by bringing an item to donate to the Silent Auction! AND, by coming prepared to participate by bidding on the items! There will be something for everyone's pocket-book!

Welcome to Uptown Normal

Rebecca C. McNeil

McLean County Treasurer & IACO 2021 Board of Directors Secretary / Treasurer

The IACO Fall Conference is right around the corner in my hometown of Normal. This is the first IACO conference that has been held in McLean County and I hope you are looking forward to your stay November 17th - 19th. The Town of Normal is situated in McLean County right alongside Bloomington at the point where interstates 55, 74 and 39 intersect. The location is ideal and easy to get to for anyone, whether traveling by auto, bus, Amtrak Train, or air. The Marriott Hotel & Conference Center is a beautiful 9 story hotel with a restaurant, bar, pool, fitness center and concierge service. The hotel is located right between Illinois State University and Uptown Normal, which is a beautiful shopping area we like to spotlight.

Uptown Normal is a safe and unique area that you can conveniently walk to after a long day of conference education sessions. The area has experienced a significant transformation during the past several years and is now a place for everyone! It is so easy to spend a few hours or even an entire afternoon discovering the district's wide range of boutiques, restaurants, bars, and specialty shops. Looking for unique one-of-a-kind shops? A few of my absolute favorite places are Apricot Lane, the Garlic Press, and Uptown Gifts Boutique. Looking for Illinois State University swag? Alamo II and Campustown are super popular with students and alumni looking for that perfect ISU fall sweatshirt. Afterward, you may want to enjoy some lunch or dinner at Medici's, DP Dough, Pub II, or Firehouse Pizza. Then, make sure to stop in for some dessert at Insomnia Cookies or Theo's Microcreamery. We all know the aroma of fresh baked cookies and homemade ice cream is hard to resist. And if you are in the mood to just relax - pull up a chair at Coffee Hound, Starbucks or Stave Wine Bar. These are wonderful places to meet with a small group, catch up on emails, or just sit outside and watch the world pass by.

The Uptown area is highlighted by the Children's Discovery Museum for those with children or grandchildren that are coming along. You may even want to extend your visit or come back another time once you see how inviting it looks. I have spent countless hours in the museum with my own daughters as they were growing up. The Children's Discovery Museum inspires the love of learning through the power of play by providing hands-on exhibits, classes and programs that actively engage the visitor in experiences that stimulate imagination, curiosity, and wonder. This is also the perfect place to stop in and do some early Christmas shopping. The Museum Store is jam-packed with educational books, toys, puzzles, games, gadgets and gizmos galore!

This November is going to be an exciting time. I hope you will have an opportunity to get out and visit the town while you are here. I am 100% confident you won't be disappointed. To learn more about the area go to www.uptownnormal.com or www.visitbn.org.

Safe travels!

Legislative Breakfast Recap

Mark Armstrong, Legislative Chair
Kane County Assessor

One of the highlights of the 2021 IACO Spring Conference was the inaugural IACO Legislative Breakfast. Conference participants were in person by Senator Steve McClure (R-Sangamon) and Representatives Dan Caulkins (R-Macon), Tom Demmer (R-Lee), and Brad Halbrook (R-Shelby). Additionally, Senators Senator Don DeWitte (R-Kane), Senator Craig Wilcox (R-McHenry) and Representative Sam Yingling (D-Lake) appeared via videoconference. The Breakfast was moderated by IACO Legislative Chairman Mark Armstrong.

More than 150 County Officials asked a variety of questions about new legislative initiatives, changing local government responsibilities, and unfunded mandates. Each of the legislators gave their perspective on the topics, and offered suggestions about communicating with legislators both in their districts as well as in Springfield.

At the conclusion of the breakfast, attendees were able to mingle with the legislators and ask a few questions one-on-one. The IAOC Legislative Committee is grateful for all who worked to make our inaugural Legislative Breakfast a success.

Each year the IACO recognizes an outstanding county government official who best demonstrates our mission of improving the quality of county government through education, promoting responsible public policy, and providing ethical service while maintaining a high standard of performance. This form is intended to facilitate the selection process by providing biographical information of each candidate. All nomination forms must be received by the deadline in order to be considered.

Purpose and Criteria: The purpose of the Illinois Association of County Officials' County Official of the Year Award is to recognize a county government official or employee who has demonstrated a commitment to excellence in county government both within his or her own community and on a regional or statewide level. This distinction will be made each year to one person representative of the high ideals embraced by the Illinois Association of County Officials, (IACO).

Eligibility: Any elected or appointed official or employee of a IACO member county is eligible. Current members of the IACO Board of Directors are ineligible to receive the award.

Award: The results will be kept secret until the Fall Conference. At the Fall Banquet, the award will be presented to one individual who has made significant contributions through their service.

Nominator Responsibility: In most instances nominations will come from the nominees affiliate organization. The nominator is expected to ensure that the nominee is at the Fall Conference Banquet to receive the award. It is not however required that the nomination come from the nominees affiliate organization. The Veterans for instance may nominate a candidate from the Coroner's, but such a nomination would require considerable research by the Veterans to understand the position of Coroner and prepare a nomination that can compete with other nominees. It would be better for the Veterans to contact the Coroners and seek support for the potential nominee.

Selection Process: The selection of the County Official of the Year is a difficult process – due in large part because of the high quality of the candidates. Our overall goal is to establish a process that results in a fair selection with as minimal bias as possible. The members of the committee all represent an affiliate organization – and it is natural that we would support the individual nominated from our own affiliate – if for no other reason than we are most familiar with the service and dedication of that individual. So our goal was to minimize that bias to the extent possible and streamline the application process.

Here is the selection process that we have used since 2009.

- 1) Any currently serving county official (at the time of nomination) will be considered for the award. Individuals that have resigned or retired earlier in the year are not eligible. (The Board noted the IACO President can at any time recognize an individual with a "President's Award".)
- 2) To minimize the inherent bias of committee members (supporting the candidate from their own affiliate organization) the Board approved a selection process currently being used by another national organization:
 - a) Each IACO Awards Committee member is responsible for selecting a "judge" from outside the IACO membership, such as a local judge, state official, or community leader. Contact information for the judge is forwarded to the Awards Committee Chairperson.
 - b) Nominations are forwarded to these judges directly from the Awards Committee Chairperson along with a scoring sheet. (Committee members do not receive the applications.)
 - c) Judges rank the nominees in several categories based on the merits of the application and forward the scoring sheets back to the Chairperson.
 - d) The Chairperson tallies the scores and announces the winner at the Fall IACO Conference.
- 3) Use of a standardized application
- 4) Use of a standardized scoring sheet for use by judges

The official nomination form and supporting materials must be received by 4:30pm on Monday, November 1, 2021
